MEMORIAL DAY.

The idea of March have gone, and April is now upon us. The Spring birds have attuned their songs to suit the season, and all nature is adorning herself with new and elegant garments. Old things have passed away, and all has become new. The flowers are budding and the trees are full of blossoms, and the world presents to man a pleasant and inviting picture.

But with all the happiness which has been bestowed upon man by his Creator, how often does he forget that he is mortal, and must pass away like the Summer's breeze, never again to participate in the busy struggle of life—never again to battle for an existence, which has its bitterness as well as sweets—never again to witness the coming and going of the seasons, he sinks down never to rise up again.

Thank heaven, however, there are a few people in this world, who have enough of the right spirit about them, to remember those, who are now among the immortals, who gave their lives to propitiate a principle which has ever been dear to the people of the South. We mean the Confederate Soldier, and the memory of his brave acts should never be effaced from the mind of any true Southerner.

Therefore, we are requested to say to our friends, who feel any interest in those who fell fighting for the right against the wrong—who stood between the oppressed and the oppressor; and who have received the unreserved applause of all good people everywhere, for their undaunted bravery and courage, come and let us strew flowers upon their graves, on the 29th of May, 1870—and show forth our confidence in the everlasting principles for which the people of the South made one of the grandest struggles ever put forth by man.

Let Sunday, May 29th, be set apart, by our friends in every portion of the county, to visit "Battle Grove Cemetery," and strew flowers upon the graves of our fallen friends. Fennell's Cornett Band will be in attendance. A programme will be published, with orders of the day.

CUBA.

The rebels in Cuba, have turned up again, and we are pleased to see that Gen. Jordan, continues in command. De Rodas, the Captain General, under old Spain, has as much respect for truth as old Lincoln ever had, and Spain is jubilant over a few lines of false news which their representative has been sending over the ocean cables. He represents that the rebels are disorganized—that Gen. Jordan has resigned or been superceded—that the rebel Congress is dissolved and that Céspedes has gone crazy—that the soldiery are demoralized and deserting, and coming into his lines, and accepting his amnesty proclamation, wherein he guarantees them protection. But all these reports are manufactured in the office of De Rodas, and are not truths, but contemptible lies. We have never for a moment, placed any confidence in these continued and one-sided reports. Here is one from Key West, Florida, which puts a very different appearance of affairs on the Island, and which evidently shows there are a few Spaniards biting the dust occasionally as well as rebels:

Key West, Fla., April 14.—Authentic advices received from Cuba to-day represent that Gen. Jordan is still in the field fighting at the head of the patriot forces. General Goyenche was defeated last week near Boga. There was an engagement on the 5th between Guyara and Bagueron, in the Colon District. The Spaniards were again defeated.

Here then is a truthful report, and one which gives us to understand that De Rodas is as far from putting down the rebels as when he first began. He will never be able to do it. His home government has no money or credit, and will be compelled to stop his supplies; and if the rebels hold out faithful a few months longer, they will gain their independence, and they can have it to say that they done it without being recognized as belligerents by the contemptible negroized concern that has hold of the helm, of the old Ship of State, in the United States. Céspedes and his adherents have not commenced this effort for independence without counting the cost, and while their so-called friends in yankee land have turned traitor to them and refuse them the pitiful moral influence of a recognition as belligerents, they nevertheless fight on as brave patriots should. We hope they may drive the last Spaniard, and the last Spanish adherent into the ocean, which surrounds their Island.

DISTILLERS.

This class of people have fallen particularly under the supervision, and watchful consideration of C. Delano, a Commissioner of Revenue at Washington. He, above all other people, has been addressing himself to their interest, so-called, ever since he fell under the pleasing favor of Booby Grant, the Great Railroad Deadhead, of this country. Delano, has become convinced that it is his interest to see, that the laws, as he construes them, shall be strictly adhered to in all cases. Legitimately speaking, we believe he has benefited, and his policy will continue to benefit the whisky Distillers of Kentucky. A strict construction and administration of the laws, does not conflict in any particular with a law-abiding man. It is the wrong doer and lawless who murmurs. Whisky manufacturers, in this District, feel the rigor of a strict construction of the whisky laws, just now, because the article has not a brisk sale, but as soon as the illicit whisky has all been consumed a ready market will be found for the Bourbon Whiskies now on the market, or can be thrown there. Hence, we feel, that however oppressive Delano may be, in his construction of the laws, if he bears equally upon all sections, the Distillers of this country will finally come out winners in the long run, and Bourbon Whiskies triumph over all other brands.

Delano has given notice, that on the last day of April 1870, the rights of Distillers cease, and that those intending then to discontinue distilling must so arrange their affairs as to terminate all work at their distillery on the last day of April, and not as has been done, have beer on hand to be distilled on the first day of May. A Distiller intending to continue his business should, do so legally, by giving his notice, with form 27, and executing his bond on the 1st day of May, in compliance with the requirements of section seven.

The laws controlling distillers should be in the hand of all Whisky makers. They are too lengthy for publication in our paper.

PARAGUAY.

Intelligence has been received in the United States, to the effect that the Paraguayan war has been terminated in the death of the Dictator of Paraguay, Don Francisco Solano Lopez. He took possession of the Paraguayan government in 1862, and commenced preparations for war immediately, upon his neighbors. He did not make a demonstration however, until 1864, and since that time he has been a terror to South America. Within his territory there were about one million of people, but now it is said only one hundred thousand can be found. They have been destroyed by powder, bullets and famine. They adhered with much firmness to the fortunes of their Dictator, and they can well be declared a brave but misguided people.

Lopez fought three powers, either of which were stronger than his government. They were the Empire of Brazil, the Argentine Republic, and Uruguay. Their forces were placed under the command of the Emperor of Brazil, who took the field and fought a battle and defeated Lopez. The Paraguayan Chief has from that time up to the date when it is asserted that he was killed, been losing ground, and losing men, until he was driven to the Savage Motto Grosso district, with his family and a few adherents, from which place in his attempt to escape, it is said he lost his life.

This is not the first time that this character of news has been received in this country, but we give as we receive it, to be believed or disbelieved, as may suit the readers' notions.

S. P. CHASE.

The contemptible old Abolitionist, from Ohio, who has been disgracing the position of Chief-Justice of the United States, has been writing a letter to the niggers, who held a XV. (radical) amendment pow-wow in Cincinnati last week. We would publish the letter for the benefit of a few people who believe he should be elected President, but they are so scarce now that they are not worthy of consideration. Chase asserts that the (fraud,) amendment is right.

DELAWARE AND THE XV. AMENDMENT.

The people of the State of Delaware are not disposed to submit quietly to the enforcement of a fraud like the XV. amendment, so-called constitutional, but have been and are holding meetings everywhere protesting against the legality of this infamous outrage upon the elective franchise. At a meeting held in that State, Hon. Thos. F. Bayard, a member of the United States Senate, addressed the people, and said: "Nevertheless, repudiating the law—delaying precedent of New England, he held that the amendment should be obeyed while it stands in the form of law, and until it shall be pronounced invalid by the Courts. He urged that the conservative party of Delaware consistent in their adherence to principle, should refuse all connection and association with negro suffrage—leaving to the radical party the responsibility of the practical introduction of an incapable and ignorant class to political importance, and as a necessary consequence to official position."

It is the duty of the Democracy of this county and all the counties, of Kentucky, to hold meetings and protest in the same manner in which our conservative friends of Delaware are doing—to stand out from the negro element, in every particular, and assert our principles as boldly as they have done. Here are their resolutions:

Resolved, That under the form and pretext of amending the Constitution of the United States, the Radical party are seeking in effect to revolutionize our whole frame of government, changing a confederation of States into a centralized government of consolidated powers, inconsistent with the free exercise of that control, by the respective States, over their domestic institutions which is essential to a self-governing, as well as local independence, in all matters not requisite for national safety.

Resolved, That the last three so-called constitutional amendments were proposed by Congress without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members of each House, thereby violating the fifth article of the Constitution. That their alleged ratification was obtained only by duress and coercion of the people of Virginia, Mississippi, Georgia and Texas, and against the expressed will of the States of Tennessee, Delaware, California, Maryland, Kentucky, New Jersey and New York, as also by military rule, and the absence of Republican governments in the other Southern States. That protesting against this illegality upon the part of Congress and the Executive, we will await the return of reason and justice, when the judicial power of the nation shall decide the invalidity of the measures which are now forced upon us as laws.

Resolved, That suffrage is a franchise and a privilege which, for the security of all classes, should be accompanied by the qualifications of proper age and general intelligence, and that in the wisdom of the Constitution of the State of Delaware, which restricts the exercise of the elective franchise to white citizens of the age of twenty-one years or more, we entirely concur, and do not desire to abandon a system which has conducted to our happiness and good government in the past, and which would in the future, if permitted to continue in force. Therefore, we desire the State of Delaware to be governed by the intelligence and virtue of white men alone. That we will not associate ourselves politically with the African race, but discountenance all attempts to obtain their votes; nor shall they, in our sole reliance for their permanence and integrity in the future.

STEVENSON AND MCCREERY.

The Louisville papers contain another letter from Hon. Thos. C. McCreery, member of the U. S. Senate, with reference to the charge said to have been made against him, to the effect that he had signed a paper recommending Gen. Burbridge to some office. This last letter from Mr. McCreery, sounds warlike in every line, and comes down upon the great "Bombastes" who fills the governors' place, with sledge hammer strokes. In what manner this Governor of Kentucky will reply, Heaven only knows. He has enough of the crawfish about him to get out of a much smaller hole, provided he has not got into the "nine hole."

We publish herewith a portion of the long and interesting letter from Hon. T. C. McCreery, referring to Mr. Stevenson, and his participation in this affair:

"For reasons which will be comprehended at a glance, Gov. Stevenson is willing to leave, if not to create, the impression that the rumor had its origin during the month of January last, and his correspondence when published may betray an anxiety to fix the particular day of the month. Out of respect to the memory of Andrew Jackson, the high-spirited soldier and statesman, I protest against the desecration of the 8th of January, to the vile purpose of hatching a slander. If it was born on the 8th of January and in the Executive Mansion, and took its first refuge in the arms of the Governor of Kentucky, it may boast of lineage that will cause other scandals of humbler paternity to hang their heads in shame. When a man has become famous or infamous, his birth, his life and his death are matters that instruct, amuse, horrify or at any rate interest his survivors, and so it is with rumors. With a view of ascertaining with precision the natal day of this one, and even arriving, if possible, at the hour and the moment of the event, I ask Gov. Stevenson this direct question: whether he or Jones introduced that particular subject? If Gov. Stevenson introduced it, we are driven irresistibly to one of three conclusions: either that he was already familiar with the scandal, or that he was willing on a fair showing to start one, or that he was earnestly seeking evidence to bolster up the frail and tottering form of one already in existence. On such a day and at such an hour, amid the festivities of the occasion, when wine and revelry banished all care, and when fair women and brave men made the air vocal with their greetings and congratulations, under the banner and plume of the victor is heard a low whisper that McCreery had recommended Burbridge for office; so low and indistinct was the tone that we cannot with positive certainty name the tongue that gave it utterance. Who was it that marred the universal harmony by such an unworthy allusion? I would have thought that slander itself would have slunk abashed from such a joyous scene and such a happy throng, bottling its slimy venom for some occasion more in keeping with its infernal mission. For the credit of the State of Kentucky, I hope it may yet turn out that the Executive Mansion was not the birthplace nor the 8th of January the time of the birth. Will Gov. Stevenson answer and say whether he or Jones introduced the subject?"

"If the correspondence between Gov. Stevenson and Mr. Jones is published, it will show that the Governor not only circulated the charge, and believed it to be true notwithstanding the denial of Mr. Beck and myself, but that he was anxious that its truth might be proven. Under these circumstances, I leave it to the people of Kentucky to say, not whether 'common courtesy' requires me to address a private note to him, but whether such a thing was not absolutely precluded by the most ordinary sentiment of self-respect on my part."

The correspondence referred to in the above, seems to be one that has been carried on between Col. T. L. Jones and Mr. Stevenson, in which the latter gentleman, has attempted to urge upon Jones the paternity of the report which has created so much excitement. Jones denounces any person, who says that he asserted that Hon. T. C. McCreery signed a paper recommending Burbridge for office, a liar and a slanderer.

Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia. Baldness, not hereditary, is often produced by sickness or humors of the scalp, which dry up the hair producing glands or follicles, and the hair falls out with what is generally called a "hair eater" at the end. The root is alive but dormant. To awake it to new energy and life, some cooling or stimulating property is needed. Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia is the preparation more universally successful than any article in the market for this purpose.

CAN THEY HOLD OFFICE?

It is believed by only a few people that the colored man has a right to hold office, and that belief is founded only upon opinion, not upon law. The radicals themselves, did not intend that, or they would have said so. It was the radical party that originated the XV. amendment, and it was that party which left to the States the right to decide whether the nigger should or not fill offices.

While the amendment was under consideration by Congress, it was nearly lost because of the "office holding clause" which it contained. Our readers, doubtless remember, when the bill went up to the Senate that it "hung fire," and that the negroizing crew raised the hue and cry that all was lost—that the representatives of the nation had proved faithless; and it was hoped by the friends of constitutional liberty, that this difference in opinion with reference to conferring rights upon the colored man, would make an irreparable breach in the radical party. But after some considerable delay in Congress, a committee was appointed from the House, and one from the Senate, which committee held a conference, and it was decided that the "office holding clause" should be left out. The XV. Article reads as follows:

"1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State, on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude."

It will be seen by the above, that no State can prohibit the negro from voting, but he must have the consent of the State authorities before he can hold office. The radicals will use the dinkies to get fat positions, if the dinkies will permit them to do so, but we have a notion that they will have some trouble in rallying all the colored boys around their standard.

Occupational Ailments.

Fresh, pure air is a vitalizing elixir. Whoever is debarr'd by circumstances from unrestricted access to this invisible, but powerful stimulant, needs a medicinal invigorant of some kind. The great object should be to choose the best. Popularity is a pretty good guarantee of merit in this standard intelligent age, and tried by this criterion Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands first among the invigorating and regulating medicines of the present day. To the wants of persons engaged in sedentary occupations, especially in crowded factories where even with the best possible ventilation the atmosphere is always to some degree polluted, this salubrious vegetable tonic is peculiarly adapted. The nature of the ingredients is no mystery. It consists of an absolutely pure digestive stimulant, thimble-root—or rather discharged—with the fluid extracts of sanative roots and herbs. The pharmacopoeia has its sanction, but what are they? The juice of only a single root or bark or plant is present in each. Not one of them contains the three properties of a tonic, an alterative, and an aperient. All these elements are blended in the Bitters; nor are these the sum of its medicinal recommendations. It is also a blood purgant and an emollient.

The baleful effect which air that has been partially exhausted of its oxygen by frequent breathing produces on the vital organs, is notorious, and when to this debilitated atmosphere is superadded the mephitic vapor of hot air furnaces, it becomes deleterious and depressing in the extreme. To enable the system to bear up, for a few hours each day against the debilitating influence of a vitiated atmosphere, a wholesome tonic and alterative is urgently required. This grand desideratum is furnished by Hostetter's Bitters, which is a strength-sustaining, health-protecting agent has no rival either among official or advertised medicines.

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which Koskoo has attained in all parts of the country

As a Great and Good Medicine,

And the Large Numbers of Testimonials

which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons who have been cured by its use, is conclusive proof of its remarkable value.

AS A BLOOD PURIFIER,

It Has No Equal,

BEING POSITIVELY

THE MOST POWERFUL VEGETABLE ALTERNATIVE YET DISCOVERED.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The Life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions this of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues lose their tone and elasticity, the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in eruptions and ELEVATED diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fourth of the human family are affected with scrofula in some form.

When the blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

Being the only Known Medicine that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and corrects the hepatic secretions and functional derangements of the LIVER, functions DEPURATES the system. While it does so, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A yellow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, as if any remedy could be had; indigestion in the month, internal heat; in many cases a dry teasing cough; instead of appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a feeling of fullness about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the sides, back, or breast; a dull about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, &c.

It is a remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder.

These affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work kindly, silently, and surely. The Relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys cannot estimate the importance of their healthy action. Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, i.e., even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood these effete matters, which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges, will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at a time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once; it remedies the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys except through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

MEETS WITH GREAT SUCCESS IN THE CURE OF

Diseases of the Nervous System.

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, morbid ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete prostration of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work, (mental and physical) are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful ratio.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows: A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical Headache, Dizziness, Nausea or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in Answering Questions; Dullness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, &c., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, &c.

Special attention is called to the fact, that the arrangements of the Finkle & Lyon Machines are such, that a firm and elastic seam can be made with high tension, and retain the pliability of silk or thread, equally with hand sewing.

It will sew any material or over seams, without soaping or oiling the goods; will make every stitch perfect, and has brought a multitude of valuable unsolicited testimonials.

Koskoo.
This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, LIVER DISEASE, &c.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Norton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, City of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the rank of all other medicines of the present day.

A series of meetings are being held in the Presbyterian Church, in this city. Rev. Mr. Glass, Pastor of the church, is assisted by Rev. Mr. Evans, we understand these meetings will be continued during the week.

Our Post Office Robbed.

On last Monday night, the Post Office at this place was entered at the front window, by some burglars, and robbed of one hundred dollars worth of Stamps, and some one hundred letters and a small amount of money. No idea as yet has been formed as to who the guilty parties are.

Another Accident.

A Mr. Mahoney, who resides near Oddville, in this county, was out on a hunting expedition last Friday, and stopping to reconnoiter, there his left arm up on the muzzle of his gun and it went off near the axilla, and lodged some where in the upper portion of his shoulder. It is considered a dangerous wound, on account of his age. He is 75 years old.

Bracken County News.

A man named Brooks, who resided near Augusta, committed suicide a few days ago by hanging himself.

At the late election in Augusta, Judge Donoham, was re-elected Mayor, and Henry Blades, City Marshal.

Horse Sales.

Rowland & Frisbie, last week, purchased from W. W. Smith, his Bay Indian Chief Horse, for which they gave $250, and sold him immediately to Mr. George, of Pa., for $400 cash. Last Monday they bought from Joe Howard, his Bay Saddle Horse for $260—and sold him the same day to the Pennsylvania for $360—and they were offered $750 for the Rowland Saddle Horse.

County Court Day at Georgetown.

Last Monday was Court Day in Georgetown, and we are informed by A. W. Lydick, that there was but little stock on the market—a few cattle selling at good prices—a few horses sold at fair prices—no mules offered. The show of Stallions was good. Crowd in town large.

Death from Carelessness.

On Monday, April 11th, Westfield Maupin, a lad of some twelve or fifteen years of age, who resided with his parents near Berryville, in this county, was kicking a shot gun around upon the floor of their home, and attempting to prove to his mother that there was no danger in the weapon whatever, when it went off and the load passed into his body just under his left arm. He died immediately. His mother was warning him of the danger of handling a weapon of the kind so carelessly at the time of the explosion; but his heedlessness would not permit him to obey her, and he paid the penalty on the spot. Such is the result of disobedience. Let other children take warning.

Sewing Machines.

If you want a machine that makes no noise, buy Finkle & Lyon.

Town Talk.
Our friend Robt. Musser, Esq., has retired from the tripod of the Cynthiana Democrat. Mr. Turnelle, an employee of the office takes control. Messrs. Hunt & Payne, Painters in Cynthiana, have recently finished up in splendid style, the Episcopal Church, in this city.

A heavy snow fell in this region last Sunday. Peach Trees are in full bloom, and when the snow had covered the Trees the blossoms shone out from under the snow beautifully. Schumaker & Bery, of this city have commenced a soap manufactory in this city. We hope the enterprise will succeed. Soap is needed as much as medicine, and as we have too Drug Stores successfully carried on, it is fair to believe that one soap factory will be sustained. The use of a little more soap, will obviate the use of so much Calomel.

The sewer on the corner of Pleasant and Main Street, needs attention, will some person see that that it is put in order.

Mrs. James Long, who was stabbed by her husband, some two weeks since is mending slowly. A reward of $300 has been offered for Long.

The death of Mr. Jno. Jameson, which we announced as having been brought about by accident, on Wednesday the 14th inst., was the result of his own work. He killed himself. Plenty of excellent fish for sale in this market.

A citizen of Cynthiana, bought $12 worth of sand in Cincinnati, and shipped on the Kentucky Central R. R., to this place. The Transportation of the sand cost $21.

Mr. W. A. Booth, of Nicholas county, has a most prolific ewe. She gave birth to a lamb five weeks since, and on Friday last she gave birth to two more, making three lambs in five weeks. All the lambs are alive and doing well.

The monument to the late Governor Powell is nearly completed. It will be twenty two feet high, and one of the most imposing in the State. Gen. Abe Buford, of Woodford, has recently added to his stock forty-seven head of cashmere goats.

Republican Convention.

On Saturday next Republicans without respect to color, will meet at the Court House, in Cynthiana, to nominate candidates for the ensuing August election.

There they will gather, black and white, a motley mixture of races. Let us suggest to some people that they can find plenty of perfume at Jno. Reneker's Drug Store, if they want a lot for the occasion.

The colored people will see to it that the resolutions are all right—and that the speakers are not permitted to call them "niggers," as at previous meetings.

We are requested to say the John Bruce is a candidate for Jailor, on this ticket.

The following verses might be sung with profit to the party.

Come all you happy darlings,
Dinah, Pomp and Crow,
De 'niment' passed de 'Later,

After making a canvass of the Ashland District, and it is presumed, becoming advised as to his prospects, Mr. A. Gallatin Talbott, Sr., of Boyle county, has published a card withdrawing his name as a candidate for Congress in that District.

News has been received of the death of Lieut. Thoms Elliott, in Dakota. Squire Kelly Elliott left Paris on Thursday, after the family of the deceased, a wife and two children. During the war Lieut. Elliot was on the staff of Gen. Burbridge, and received his lieutenantcy after the war, at the instance of his step-father, Hon. Garret Davis.

[For the Cynthiana News.]

Mr. IDA, HARRISON COUNTY, KY., April 16, 1870.

Mr. Editor:—In justice to the gentlemen, some of them prominent Democrats, who recommended J. F. Lebus, and to the Judge who appointed him Commissioner of Common School, I desire to occupy a brief space in your paper, for the purpose of correcting an erroneous impression that has gone out in certain quarters, from a cause not necessary to mention, that he is an adherent of the radical party. This is a mistake. I have known him personally and intimately from his boyhood, and he has all his life been a member of the Democratic party. Having been quietly engaged in this county for thirteen years in teaching school, he is not very generally known; but of his fidelity as a supporter of Democratic principles, his unvarying vote as well as the contributions of his pen furnish ample proof.

He was an ardent supporter of the school tax, and therefore, in my opinion, will make an efficient Commissioner, and spare no pains in carrying out successfully the new School system. Yours, respectfully,
N. C. DILLE.

The Fancy Arabian Saddle Stallion.

MAYFLOWER, JR.,

WILL stand the present Season at Cynthiana, at $15 to insure a mare to serve Mares at $15 to insure a mare to serve. Ten Dollars the Season—money due when the mare is known to be in foal, or mare parted with. Season money due when the service is rendered, with the privilege of returning the mare next year, should I keep the horse.

Good blue grass for mares left to breed, and again if required at reasonable rates. All care taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but I will not be responsible should any occur.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.

MAYFLOWER in color is very rich and variegated, 15½ hands high, 9 years old, weighs 1,000 lbs.; in form, style, action and energy he has no superior. He goes all the elegant, fashionable and fancy saddle seats in the most imitatable style, either by the touch or sign. His oldest colts are now coming in use and all who have them think them the best mares they have ever owned. Some few may be found in or near Cynthiana at this time. Those who have any taste for saddle stock would do well by calling to see the horse, and also his produce.

Mayflower was exhibited at the State Fair two years ago; the judges were unanimous in their opinion that he was the best saddle horse in the ring, as also every person who has seen him, as no horse bears such a reputation as a sure foal getter. Mayflower was raised by Bob Adair, of Mayville. He was sired by the old imported Arabian Stallion Mayflower; his dam a sorrel mare by Imported Buckhunter, grand dam imported Bay Kitty.

I will take pleasure in showing the horse to persons by their calling at my Office, on Main Street, in Jones' Row.
